Anupama Srivastava

Founder and Artistic Director, InSyncKathak Dance School

Anupama Srivastava is the Founder and Artistic Director of InSyncKathak Dance School. She has been trained in the North Indian Classical Kathak Dance style since age six. Anupama performed extensively in India over a span of 15 years under the tutelage of the world renowned Kathak Maestro Padmashri Guru Shovana Narayan, who is one of the best-known disciples of Padma Vibhushan Pandit Birju Maharaj ji. After moving to the US, she continued to dance, and performed at local events before starting her own school in 2013. She is an energetic and enthusiastic Guru, and provides Kathak education and training to about 80 students. In six short years since its inception, InSyncKathak has over 100 performances and 25 awards to its credit.

In 2015, Anupama organized a nine-city "Guru Shovana Narayan USA Tour" across Texas, Pennsylvania, Connecticut and California. She shared the stage with her Guru at the Asia Society Houston, SOHARA Foundation Dallas, Ganesh Festival Philadelphia, InSyncKathak's Rhythm and Joy at Fremont, Lecture-Demonstrations at UC Berkeley and Newark CA, and won critical acclaim for this effort.

Anupama's choreographies in solo, duet, small and large group settings span the vast rhythmic, expressive and spiritual experience that is Kathak: ranging from story-telling steeped in devotion, to complex rhythmic compositions, exquisite expressions, social topics and modern choreographic elements. Some notable performances by Anupama and her students include Kathak Concerts at the Livermore Temple in 2013, 2014 & 2018, the Republic Day Celebration by SF Indian Consulate in 2017, Toronto International Youth Dance Festival 2017, Natya Manjari 2017 and Vasant Utsav 2018 by Kalasanga, Kalpana 2018 & 2019 by Yuva Bharati, PUSHFest 2018 San Francisco, the SF Movement Arts Festival Jan 2019 and collaborative works with musicians and dancers of different genres.
